

Jane Jensen - Artist One-Sheet

Overview: Jane Jensen is a versatile musical artist and producer whose career spans decades and genres, rooted in rock & roll, poetry, and electronic music. Her profound affinity for industrial music has been a constant influence throughout her diverse projects.

Career Highlights:

- Early Career: Launched in early 90's Chicago with "Sacrifice" on Invisible Records, a collaboration with industrial duo Die Warzau.
- Major Label Debut: Released "Comic Book Whore" under Interscope in 1996, establishing a significant presence in the 90's New York club scene, including performances at CBGB's.
- Touring Experience: Toured extensively in the US and Australia, sharing stages with notable acts like Filter, Gravity Kills, Linda Perry, L7, Moby, Green Day.
- Film and Television: Known for composing and producing music for prominent shows such as Grey's Anatomy, Rescue 911, and appearing in films including Troma Entertainment's cult classic "Tromeo and Juliet".

Recent Projects:

- Changeling (2022): Marked her return to producing dreamy, post-industrial music, sparking collaborations with The Joy Thieves, Sapphira Vee, Go Fight, Melodywhore, and Dogtablet.
- Upcoming Release: Anticipated single "Lost Highway" precedes her forthcoming album "Queen of Damage".

Critical Acclaim:

- REGEN MAGAZINE: "[Changeling] showcases the irreverence, playfulness, and innovation that has characterized her career."
- ALL MUSIC: "[Burner] Unmistakably brutal and pure attitude... an album that will stay with you."
- LOLLOPOP MAGAZINE: "[Comic Book Whore] is everything you do love about female rock music, with a serious sense of humor."
- VILLAGE VOICE: "'Twixt Courtney and Alanis on the noise...only sexier."
